VACATION TIME

It is our hope that our students and their families enjoy a wonderful vacation time. Vacations are beneficial. They help us change our routine, permit us to experience new places and people while continuing to grow and appreciate the natural beauty of God. WE CAN BE VERY GRATEFUL THAT THE ONE WHO NEVER GOES ON VACATION IS GOD! He never has a "busy signal" or transfers us to voice mail. In appreciation, it's only right that we should not forget God during vacation time. We must go to Mass each Sunday, and that includes when we are away from home. The Holy Eucharist is what makes us Catholic, and gives us the spiritual strength we need. Let's be proud of, and always want to live our Catholic faith!

~~ ADORATION OF THE MOST BLESSED SACRAMENT ~~

Wednesday – 7:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Thursday – 7:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

Friday – 7:30 a.m. to 8:00 p.m.

Saturday – 7:30 a.m. to 3:00 p.m.

If you can give one hour, or substitute, please call Diana Roth @ 283-8709

“All in Need of Mercy.”/ Part I of II

On Independence Day, each America should take the time to pause. Time to reflect. Time to remember. Time to be grateful. And yes, dare we say in this politically correct, crazy world in which we live, be thankful to God for this nation. Much has changed over the past 234 years since the Declaration of Independence. Much of it has been good. The United States continues to be the world leader in humanitarian assistance. We came back united from a civil war and won World War II from tyranny.

There have also been some very bad occurrences over two centuries. Our founding fathers would probably not recognize the political scene in Washington, D.C. There is so much anger, scandal, corruption, and finger pointing. The founding fathers never envisioned that politics would become a high paying career. They saw the offices of representative and senator as a part time role, and one that honestly represented the people who elected them. Nor did they envision a person being elected for life like a monarch (e.g., unlimited congressional terms and Supreme Court appointments). From one election to another, the campaigns never end today. And also today, they have never been uglier, with relentless personal attacks. Those who are elected to office, with a few exceptions, continuously blame their predecessors whenever their polls slip or things don't go the way they want. It's a refusal to accept responsibility

Perhaps it began with the issuance of so-called “No Fault Divorce.” That legislation, which states that neither wife nor husband is to blame for the dissolution of a marriage, has its origins in California where it became effective on Jan. 1, 1970. In less than 15 years, nearly every other state passed similar legislation. This was quickly followed by the adoption of “No Fault Insurance” by some 24 states between 1970 and 1975. Both of these effectively removed culpability, and therefore any blame or guilt.

It can be said that for about the last four decades, we in the U.S. have mastered the “art of passing the buck.” Our “no fault” mentality has led us to the point of almost no one willing to accept responsibility for anything. Even our children are reluctant to accept blame when they have obviously done something wrong. How many adults condone children's bad behavior by making excuses instead of applying discipline?

The Gospels don't contain “no fault” escapes. To be His follower, Jesus demands personal responsibility. Sin is real and must be avoided to gain eternal life. When an individual fails, he/she is invited to repentance. On this topic, Jesus provides us with the Lord's Prayer in which we ask God our Father for forgiveness. In part we pray, Forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. To ask forgiveness implies that we acknowledge our faults. We are all sinners in need of repentance. But it doesn't stop there. Then we are to forgive others as God forgives us. In the story of the adulterous woman Jesus tells us: “Let the one among you who is without sin be the first one to cast a stone.” (cf.: John 8:7) After those who wanted to stone the woman depart, Jesus imparts His forgiveness, and a warning: “Neither do I condemn you. Go, and do not sin anymore.” (cf.: John 8:11)

To be continued next week.....

~~ BACK PAGE HUMOR & MORE~~

Happy 4th of July! & May God Bless America!

We must never forget who gets the credit for the freedoms we have,
of which we should be eternally grateful..

*For all of our other military personnel, wherever they may be Please support all of the troops defending our Country.
And God Bless our Military who are protecting our Country for our freedom.*

Thanks to them, and their sacrifices we can celebrate the 4th of July

I watched the flag pass by one day, it fluttered in the breeze.
A young Marine saluted it, and then he stood at ease.
I looked at him in uniform so young, so tall, so proud,
With hair cut square and eyes alert he'd stand out in any crowd.
I thought how many men like him had fallen through the years.
How many died on foreign soil how many mothers' tears?

How many pilots' planes shot down? How many died at sea ?
How many foxholes were soldiers' graves ? No, freedom isn't free.
I heard the sound of Taps one night, when everything was still,
I listened to the bugler play and felt a sudden chill.
I wondered just how many times that Taps had meant, "Amen"
When a flag had draped a coffin, of a brother or a friend.

I thought of all the children, of the mothers and the wives,
Of fathers, sons and husbands with interrupted lives.

I thought about a graveyard
at the bottom of the sea,
of unmarked graves in Arlington.
No, freedom isn't free.

Enjoy Your Freedom & God Bless Our Troops
