If your reading this bulletin for the first time in a long time---or perhaps for the very first time ever---perhaps the Lord has brought you to us. At holydays like Christmas and Easter, we see many other faces than we do throughout the year. WE WELCOME YOU! If you have been away from the Church,---for whatever reason: hurt, misunderstanding, disagreement, etc.---perhaps this is Our Lord's INVITATION TO YOU TO COME BACK AND BE WITH US ON A REGULAR BASIS. The Church was founded by Jesus, upon the rock of Peter, the first Pope. While she is made up of humans who are frail and weak like each of us, the Church herself remains the spotless Bride of Christ. Her purpose is to lead us to Christ, Who wants all of us to be with Him in heaven. Don't be afraid. Don't look for other excuses. There's no better time than NOW. WELCOME HOME!

[N.B.: This week, we offer a column (from June 27, 2010) by Fr. George W. Rutler, pastor of the Church of Our Savior, Manhattan, N.Y.]

Insecurity is a characteristic of adolescence. Those formative years are a time of figuring out how the self relates to others, moving from self-absorption to self-awareness. There are those who live a lifelong adolescence, whose narcissism, like an orchid living off air, lives off the approval of others. Their desire for self-esteem smothers a mature desire for eternal salvation. Instead of “Have mercy on me, a sinner,” the perpetual adolescent says, “I want to feel good about myself.” Inevitably, that “feel good” approach enslaves the self to the opinions of others. It is the opposite of the glorious maturity of St. Paul, who spoke “not as trying to please men, but rather God, who judges our hearts.” (cf.: I Thessalonians 4)

There is a proper human respect, which is a reverence for others. The immature kind of human respect is a dependency on approval by others. “For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? If I were still trying to please men, I would not be a bond-servant of Christ.” (cf.: Galatians 1:10)

Some of the most popular cultural figures are those who exploit people’s insecurities and make them “feel good” about themselves. Demagogues know how to flatter the spiritually immature into submission, but their intoxicating charisma is a deadly illusion: “Woe to you when all men speak well of you, for that is how their fathers treated the false prophets.” (cf.: Luke 6:26)

The simmering danger in our political culture is not the deeply flawed people who often get elected, but the immaturity of the people who elect them. “They pursued emptiness, and themselves became empty through copying the nations round them.” (cf.: II Kings 17:15)

Pope Benedict XVI recently told ordinands: “He who wants above all to realize an ambition of his own, to achieve a personal success, will always be a slave to himself and public opinion. To be considered, he will have to flatter; he must say what the people want to hear, he must adapt himself to the changing fashions and opinions and, thus, he will deprive himself of the vital relationship with the truth, reducing himself to condemning tomorrow what he praises today. A man who plans his life like this, a priest who sees ministry in these terms, does not truly love God and others, but only himself and, paradoxically, ends up losing himself.”

As the Pope practices what he preaches, he is so secure in his service to God, that he does not rely on newspaper editorials or talk-show pundits to craft the Gospel he preaches. What he said to those new priests applies to everyone who seeks spiritual maturity. Self-absorption eventually leads to self-annihilation, but eternal life begins with feeling good about God instead of ourselves. “To know (God’s) power is the root of immortality.” (cf.: Wisdom 15:3)

~~ BACK PAGE HUMOR & MORE~~

DO YOU BELIEVE? - I BELIEVE !

That either you control your attitude or it controls you.

That heroes are the people who do what has to be done when it needs to be done, regardless of the consequences.

That sometimes when I'm angry
I have the right to be angry,
But that doesn't give me the right to be cruel.

That it isn't always enough, to be forgiven by others.
Sometimes, you have to learn to forgive yourself

The happiest of people don't necessarily have the best of everything;
They just make the most of everything they have.

That the people you care about most in life
are taken from you too soon.

That even when you think you have no more to give,
When a friend cries out to you -
you will find the strength to help.

That credentials on the wall
do not make you a decent human being.

That you shouldn't be so eager to find out a secret.
It could change your life Forever.

Two people can look at the exact same
Thing and see something totally different.

That your life can be changed in a matter of Hours by people who don't even know you.

That our background and circumstances
may have influenced who we are,
But, we are responsible for who we become.
