*This Christmas end a quarrel.
seek out a forgotten
friend. Dismiss suspicion, and replace it with trust... Write a love letter. Share some treasure. Give a soft answer. Encourage youth. Manifest your loyalty in Word and deed. Keep a promise. Find the time.
Forgo a grudge. Forgive an enemy. Listen. Apologize if you were wrong. Try to understand. Flout envy. Examine your demands on others.
Think first of someone else. Appreciate. Be kind; be gentle. Laugh a little. Laugh a little more. Deserve confidence. Take up arms against malice. Decry complacency.
Express your gratitude. Go to church. Welcome a stranger. Gladden the heart of a child.
Take pleasure in the beauty and wonder of the earth. Speak your love. Speak it still once again!*

“Full of Grace, Pray for Us Sinners.”

In the middle of this second week of the Advent Season, Holy Mother Church gives us the beautiful Feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary. Not merely a special feast in honor of the Blessed Mother, it is also a Holy Day of Obligation throughout the universal Church. On top of this, it is particularly important for Catholics in the United States as the Church in this country is under the patronage of the Immaculate Conception of Our Lady. The beautiful Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, D.C. is a powerful reminder of this.

The Blessed Virgin Mary, Queen of all saints, is the one who always leads us to her beloved Son, Jesus. Far from seeking any personal accolades, the humble maiden from Nazareth’s only desire is that each of us be saved. From that moment before Jesus died on the Cross, when he gave His beloved Mother to the care of the Apostle John, Mary became the mother of all humanity. Though no relationship can ever compare to the one she shares with her Divine Son, Our Lady nonetheless cares for each person created by God in His image and likeness as any mother cares for and loves her child.

This feast of Mary’s Immaculate Conception is one that often causes confusion on the parts of some, including Catholics. So let us say what this celebration is not: it is not a celebration of Jesus being conceived immaculately in the womb of Mary. The Annunciation by the Archangel Gabriel celebrates the human conception of the Second Person of the Holy Trinity, the Son of God. He became flesh in the womb of Mary, by the power of the Holy Spirit at the moment she agreed to become the Mother of the Savior.

Since the fall of our first parents, Adam and Eve, in the Garden of Paradise, every human being who is born comes into the world with original sin. That sin is washed away in the Sacrament of Baptism. The feast on December 8 commemorates the conception of Mary in the womb of her mother, Saint Anne. Mary, by a singular privilege given to her by God who foresaw her future role as Mother of the Redeemer, was conceived and born free of original sin. This was a belief held by the Church from the very beginning, taught by her pastors and accepted by the faithful. Blessed Pope Pius IX made it official when he proclaimed the dogma of the Immaculate Conception in 1854. As if to confirm the Holy Father’s decision, Our Lady herself declared four years later, when asked her identity by Bernadette Soubirous in Lourdes, “I am the Immaculate Conception.” The December 8th feast celebrates that Mary was preserved from original sin. Thus she was never prone to commit sin (unlike the rest of us) for the remainder of her mortal life. Only of Mary can it be truly said that she is “full of grace.” We also see in Our Lady’s Immaculate Conception the importance of Baptism for each individual. Through that sacrament, not only does one become a member of the Church, but one receives a share in God’s grace when original sin is washed away.

As we celebrate this great feast, let us pray for two special intentions: that Our Lady will continue to intercede for our nation in these troubling times, and that every member of our families will receive new birth through the waters of Baptism.

The Story of Adam & Eve's Pets

Adam and Eve said, 'Lord, when we were in the garden, you walked with us everyday. Now we do not see you any more. We are lonesome here, and it is difficult for us to remember how much you love us.'

And God said, I will create a companion for you that will be with you and who will be a reflection of my love for you, so that you will love me even when you cannot see me.

Regardless of how selfish or childish or unlovable you may be, this new companion will accept you as you are and will love you as I do, in spite of yourselves.'

And God created a new animal to be a companion for Adam and Eve. And it was a good animal and God was pleased. And the new animal was pleased to be with Adam and Eve and he wagged his tail. And Adam said, 'Lord, I have already named all the animals in the Kingdom and I cannot think of a name for this new animal.'

And God said, 'I have created this new animal to be a reflection of my love for you, his name will be a reflection of my own name, and you will call him DOG.'

And Dog lived with Adam and Eve and was a companion to them and loved them. And they were comforted. And God was pleased. And Dog was content and wagged his tail.

After a while, it came to pass that an angel came to the Lord and said, 'Lord, Adam and Eve have become filled with pride. They strut and preen like peacocks and they believe they are worthy of adoration. Dog has indeed taught them that they are loved, but perhaps too well.'

And God said, I will create for them a companion who will be with them and who will see them as they are. The companion will remind them of their limitations, so they will know that they are not always worthy of adoration.'

And God created CAT to be a companion to Adam and Eve. And Cat would not obey them. And when Adam and Eve gazed into Cat's eyes, they were reminded that they were not the supreme beings. And Adam and Eve learned humility. And they were greatly improved. And God was pleased. And Dog was happy.

And Cat . . .didn't care one way or the other!
