GUIDELINES FOR LENT

Ash Wednesday, March 9th , and Good Friday, April 22nd are days of fast and abstinence. Fridays of Lent are also days of abstinence.

- ~ On days of fast, when only one full meal is allowed, two other meatless meals may be taken according to one's needs, but together they should not equal another full meal.
- ~ The other Fridays of Lent are days of abstinence from meat.
- ~ The obligation to abstain from meat begins at fourteen (14) years of age.
- ~ Obligation to fast begins at eighteen(18) years of age and ends at fifty-nine(59) years of age.
- ~ Although the faithful may excuse themselves for a just cause from these laws of fast and abstinence, there is an obligation to substitute another penance and no Catholic should lightly excuse himself/herself from this obligation in the Lenten season.

Temptation & Resistance

“Ah, the simple joy of temptation!” goes the current ad slogan for McDonald’s, followed by, “I’m lovin’ it.” Harmless enough, some would say. It’s just an advertising ploy to entice us to buy their food. Not a big deal. But why did the creators choose those particular words for their ad? They, like we, should be aware that food often is a temptation, specifically when persons over-indulge. Is this slogan being used to de-sensitize us to the dangers of temptation? In many ways, we have become deaf to the subtle ways that Satan employs others to break down our defenses, to lower our guard.

For centuries, the Gospel for the First Sunday in Lent has been the temptation of Our Lord after spending forty days and nights in the desert (cf.: Matthew 4:1-11). Throughout His life and works, prayer with the Father was priority for Jesus, and so He prepared for the start of His public ministry by withdrawing in prayerful solitude.

Our Lord’s wonderful example of the need for regular prayer in each of our lives should not surprise us. But in further meditating on this Gospel, we might question how the Son of God, the Second Person of the Most Blessed Trinity, could Himself be tempted. The simple answer: Jesus is both divine and human, and His humanity was exposed to temptation. The great liar Satan was clever enough to try and entice Our Lord with the three classic temptations: the world, the flesh, and the devil. But Jesus did not succumb to the temptations. Undoubtedly His desert retreat, though physically weakening Him for lack of food, had strengthened Him spiritually to resist. By this, Our Lord demonstrates that the ability to withstand temptation is within each human being.....so long as we cooperate with the grace God gives us to resist.

It is not easy. Temptations are not “simple joys.” Like poisonous arrows aimed at us, we face them daily, in various ways. A minor difference of opinion at work or school can tempt us to lash out at the other person. Anger, which can be justifiable in some situations, can become explosive, even deadly, if we allow ourselves to fan the flames.

The first way to resist temptation is to realize we are being tempted. Immediately we need to turn to God. For various kinds of temptation, we may ask Our Lady’s or one of the saints’ help to overcome. If necessary, we should physically remove ourselves from the very place that may be contributing to the temptation. So it is a combination of divine and human assistance because once one gives in to temptation, it’s nearly always impossible to turn away from sin. It’s like dirt being sucked into a vacuum.

Yes, succumbing to temptation always leads to sin. Realizing this, let us redouble our efforts to follow Our Lord’s example and resist the devil’s ploys, even when they are contained in seemingly innocent things like a television advertisement. Don’t be naïve.

If we sin, however, there is always hope. The Lord always invites us to repentance, offering us His mercy. Let us acknowledge our personal sinfulness and the need for forgiveness, correction, and conversion, praying sincerely and humbly, “Have mercy on me, God, in Your goodness; in Your abundant compassion blot out my offense. Wash away all my guilt; from my sin cleanse me.” (cf.: Psalm 51)
