Jesus Means What He Says

Although it is not a strict line of division, the times before and after Vatican Council II produced many, many changes in the Church, and in the Church's relation with the world. Some of these changes were for the better; many were reckless.

Prior to the council, many had an image of Jesus---often of God in general---as a judge. That Our Lord will indeed judge us remains true today. After the council, perhaps in order to make Jesus more "accessible" or "endearing," other images appeared: Jesus as brother; friend; generally, a laid back fellow Who looks the other way, even when His laws and the Magisterium of the Church He founded are disobeyed. (Let us pray that with the help of the forthcoming revised translation of the Roman Missal, the era of the "clown Jesus" {a la "Godspell," cute but hardly truthful} will finally be put to rest!). The true identity of Jesus is obscured when either extreme image is over emphasized.

Though divine, Jesus lived our human emotions, in the best ordered way of any human being. So He is indeed a gentle shepherd Who cares for us, His sheep. But He is also King, stern when necessary (e.g., His confrontations with the hypocrisy of the Pharisees). Jesus is a person "comfortable in His own skin," to employ a contemporary description. He doesn't make excuses for our sins (cf.: the woman at the well [John 4:5-18ff.]; the adulterous woman [John 8:2-11]). Sin offends Him. Sin can lead the soul to hell. To save us from our sins, Jesus died on the cross. When we honestly admit our sins, He readily welcomes us back. He is a leader in the true sense of the word. When He preaches, He means what He says, even when it's not popular. That means sometimes we might be uncomfortable in hearing a certain Gospel passage, because Jesus' words and teaching are challenging us, in hope, to be and do better.

Though there exist some valid reasons to end a marriage, divorce has become far too common and "acceptable" today. Too many spouses forget or abandon their vows at the slightest irritation. When the Pharisees tried to trap Jesus by arguing Moses permitted a divorce decree, Jesus reminded them that Moses allowed it because the people's hearts had become hardened. Jesus warns that there will be struggles (cf.: John 16:33). But God never intended such a thing as "no fault divorce." Jesus said that "from the beginning of creation, God made them male and female" and that when a man and a woman come together, "they are no longer two, but become one flesh. Therefore what God has joined together, let no man separate." (cf.: Mark 10:1-12)

The passage on divorce also reminds us that there is no excuse for so-called "same sex marriage." This phenomenon is spreading like wildfire, with those in favor employing emotional and personal rights arguments. Yet nowhere in Scripture do we find the slightest provision for such a distortion of marriage. Would not God, in His infinite wisdom, have provided for such a situation, regardless of the custom of the time? Jesus' message will never be obscured or re-written to suit prevailing, erroneous issues.

Jesus is the Second Person of the Blessed Trinity, true God and true man. He wants us to believe in and trust Him, and to love Him as He loves each of us.

Sniffer

A man had just settled into his seat next to the window on the plane when another man sat down in the aisle seat and put his black Labrador Retriever in the middle seat next to the man.

The first man looked very quizzically at the dog and asked why the dog was allowed on the plane.

The second man explained that he was from the Police Drugs Enforcement Agency and that the dog was a 'sniffing dog'. 'His name is Sniffer and he's the best there is. I'll show you once we get airborne, when I put him to work.'

The plane took off, and once it has leveled out, the Policeman said, 'Watch this.' He told Sniffer to 'search'. Sniffer jumped down, walked along the aisle, and finally sat very purposefully next to a woman for several seconds. Sniffer then returned to his seat and put one paw on the policeman's arm.

The Policeman said, 'Good boy', and he turned to the man and said, 'That woman is in possession of marijuana, I'm making a note of her seat number and the authorities will apprehend her when we land. 'Gee, that's pretty good,' replied the first man.

Once again, the Policeman sent Sniffer to search the aisles. The Lab sniffed about, sat down beside a man for a few seconds, returned to its seat, and this time he placed two paws on the agent's arm. The Policeman said, 'That man is carrying cocaine, so again, I'm making a note of his seat number for the police.' 'I like it!' said his seat-mate.

The Policeman then told Sniffer to 'search' again. Sniffer walked up and down the aisles for a little while, sat down for a moment, and then came racing back to the agent, jumped into the middle seat and proceeded to poop all over the place.

The first man was really disgusted by this behavior and couldn't figure out how or why a well-trained dog would behave like that, so he asked the Policeman, 'What's going on?'

The Policeman nervously replied, 'He's just found a bomb.'
