Welcome to Divine Mercy Parish ~ We are pleased to have you present today and extend to you the warmest of welcomes. It is fitting that we should celebrate the Holy Mass together at our Parish, the center of our spiritual life. We ask everyone gathered here to remember this is a holy place. It is a place where the Blessed Sacrament, Our Lord present among us, is kept in the tabernacle. It is also a sacred place for prayer. Therefore, please maintain a respectful silence in the Church out of consideration for the presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and those who are praying. Thank you for your understanding.

Forgiveness

“No one heals himself by wounding another.”

St. John Chrysostom

For Reflection:

“We ourselves feel that what we are doing is just a drop in the ocean.

But the ocean would be less because of that missing drop.”

MOTHER THERESA OF CALCUTTA

Pro-Life Reflection

From today's 1st Reading, Jeremiah 20: "I grow weary holding it in, I cannot endure it."

Do you grow weary of being politically correct when topics of pro-life or end of life issues are brought up?

WILL BIKE 4 FOOD ~ Patrick Flynn and his friend, Dan Walsh, have signed up to ride in this year's Will Bike 4 Food to benefit The Food Bank of Western MA. The event is on September 17th, 2011 at Millside Park in Easthampton. We need your help. We each have a fund raising target of $135. For every $1 donated the Food Bank provides $13 worth of food to local families and seniors in need. Each of us knows someone who has been fed by a food pantry or a senior Brown Bag. You may not know their names, but in the present uncertain economic times, you definitely know at least one family or senior, may be more, who has been able to put food on the table thanks to the Food Bank. The Food Bank seeks to make nutritious food affordable and accessible for all residents in Western Massachusetts. For more information on how you can get involved in your community, visit www.foodbankwma.org. I'm writing to ask you to support my participation in this event by making a donation to the The Food Bank of Western MA in my name. Please visit my fundraising page at <https://www.PledgeReg.com/21381> I hope you'll consider making a donation of any amount to help me reach my fundraising goal! You can learn more about this great event at www.foodbankwma.org/events/bike Thanks so much for your support!

Susie's husband had been slipping in and out of a coma for several months. Things looked grim, but she was by his bedside every single day. One day as he slipped back into consciousness, he motioned for her to come close to him. She pulled the chair close to the bed and leaned her ear close to be able to hear him.

"You know", he whispered, his eyes filling with tears, "you have been with me through all the bad times. When I got fired, you stuck right beside me. When my business went under, there you were. When we lost the house, you were there. When I got shot, you stuck with me. When my health started failing, you were still by my side. "And you know what?"

"What, dear?" she asked gently, smiling to herself.

"I think you're bad luck."
