Welcome to Divine Mercy Parish ~ We are pleased to have you present today and extend to you the warmest of welcomes. It is fitting that we should celebrate the Holy Mass together at our Parish, the center of our spiritual life. We ask everyone gathered here to remember this is a holy place. It is a place where the Blessed Sacrament, Our Lord present among us, is kept in the tabernacle. It is also a sacred place for prayer. Therefore, please maintain a respectful silence in the Church out of consideration for the presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and those who are praying. Thank you for your understanding.

“Attitude ~ We cannot control the wind, but we can adjust our sails.”

For Reflection:

When people question about whether a Priest should marry?

A better question to meditate on “Was Jesus married???”

PRO-LIFE REFLECTION

From today's Gospel, John 15: "...but I chose you and appointed you to go out and bear fruit that will remain..."

We are commissioned, just as the Apostles were, to teach all nations what Jesus had learned from the Father. By snuffing out life at its beginnings or hastening its ending we eliminate the many mysteries of life's meaning.

TO ALL OUR MOTHERS OF DIVINE MERCY PARISH

CATHOLIC COMMUNICATIONS COLLECTION ~ MAY 19TH & 20TH Our diocesan Catholic Communications ministry and the national CCC office help to ensure an ongoing Catholic presence in today's media by educating, entertaining, inspiring and informing the faithful. This is a costly enterprise and this upcoming annual collection in support of Catholic Communications is crucial to the continuation of these evangelization and outreach efforts. In a special way donations from this annual collection help support our television and radio outreach including The Chalice of Salvation, our televised Mass; Real to Reel, our news and information program; and our weekly Spanish radio program, La Voz Catolica. Your support has also allowed us to increase our presence on the ever growing internet through our news and information website iobserve.org along with other websites, blogs and publications. And though the delivery method varies, the Gospel message never does! Your support helps to bring a message of hope to countless people. This will be especially important in the coming months as we confront a number of issues for which our Church sponsored communication endeavors will be perhaps our only reliable means of reaching out to explain our positions and concerns. But only with the help of our parishes can this important media work continue. I strongly encourage you to support the annual Catholic Communications Campaign collection. Thank you and please help us continue to spread the Good News around our diocese. With prayerful best wishes. In Christ, Most Reverend Timothy A. McDonnell Bishop of Springfield

Wrong Email

A Minnesota couple decided to vacation to Florida during the winter. They planned to stay at the very same hotel where they spent their honeymoon 20 years earlier. Because of hectic schedules, it was difficult to coordinate their travel schedules. So, the husband left Minnesota and flew to Florida on Thursday. His wife would fly down the following day. The husband checked into the hotel. There was a computer in his room, so he decided to send an E-mail to his wife. However, he accidentally left out one letter in her E-mail address, and without realizing his error, he sent the e-mail.

Meanwhile.....somewhere in Houston, a widow had just returned home from her husband's funeral. He was a minister of many years who was called home to glory following a sudden heart attack. The widow decided to check her E-mail, expecting messages from relatives and friends. After reading the first message, she fainted.

The widow's son rushed into the room, found his mother on the floor, and saw the computer screen which read:

To: My Loving Wife

Subject: I've Arrived

Date: 16 April 2012

I know you're surprised to hear from me. They have computers here now and you are allowed to send E-mails to your loved ones. I've just arrived and have been checked in. I see that everything has been prepared for your arrival tomorrow.

Looking forward to seeing you then!

Hope your journey is not as uneventful as mine was.

P.S. Sure is hot down here!
