Welcome to Divine Mercy Parish ~ We are pleased to have you present today and extend to you the warmest of welcomes. It is fitting that we should celebrate the Holy Mass together at our Parish, the center of our spiritual life. We ask everyone gathered here to remember this is a holy place. It is a place where the Blessed Sacrament, Our Lord present among us, is kept in the tabernacle. It is also a sacred place for prayer. Therefore, please maintain a respectful silence in the Church out of consideration for the presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and those who are praying. Thank you for your understanding.

PRO-LIFE REFLECTION

From the Gospel of the Feast of The Immaculate Conception, Luke 1: “...you will conceive in your womb and bear a son and you shall name him Jesus.”

Modern science took almost 1900 years to determine that life begins at conception; modern law wiped it all away with one decision.

LOTTERY CALENDARS we're sent to all our parishioners a few weeks ago. The sale of these calendars is open to the public. If you know of anyone that would like to purchase one or if you yourself would like to purchase more to give as gifts for Christmas, birthdays, or as a show of gratitude to someone, they are available after Masses on the weekends or by calling the Rectory.

KEEP CHRIST IN CHRISTMAS The Sts. Peter & Paul Men's Guild has generously donated the "Keep Christ in Christmas" magnets to all Divine Mercy Parishioners. If you would like to help spread a simple message, please take one, they are available as you enter the church. Since 2005 the display of this Nativity Scene has helped quietly affirm the true meaning of Christmas, the celebration of the birth of Jesus Christ. The Men's Guild purchased just enough so that each parishioner could have a magnet for their car, so please only take one if you plan to display it on your vehicle.

~ SOMETHING TO PONDER ~ Only Hope we find GOD again before it is too late!!

The following was written by Ben Stein and recited by him on CBS Sunday Morning Commentary.

My Confession:

I don't like getting pushed around for being a Jew, and I don't think Christians like getting pushed around for being Christians. I think people who believe in God are sick and tired of getting pushed around, period. I have no idea where the concept came from, that America is an explicitly atheist country. I can't find it in the Constitution and I don't like it being shoved down my throat... Or maybe I can put it in another way: where did the idea come from that we should worship celebrities and we aren't allowed to worship God as we understand Him? I guess that's a sign that I'm getting old, too. But there are a lot of us who are wondering where these celebrities came from and where the America we knew went to. In light of the many jokes we send to one another for a laugh, this is a little different: This is not intended to be a joke: it's not funny, it's intended to get you thinking. In light of recent events...terrorists attack, school shootings, etc. I think it started when Madeleine Murray O'Hare (she was murdered, her body found a few years ago) complained she didn't want prayer in our schools, and we said OK. Then someone said you better not read the Bible in school... The Bible says thou shalt not kill; thou shalt not steal, and love your neighbor as yourself. And we said OK. Then Dr. Benjamin Spock said we shouldn't spank our children when they misbehave, because their little personalities would be warped and we might damage their self-esteem (Dr. Spock's son committed suicide). We said an expert should know what he's talking about...And we said okay... Now we're asking ourselves why our children have no conscience, why they don't know right from wrong, and why it doesn't bother them to kill strangers, their classmates, and themselves. Probably, if we think about it long and hard enough, we can figure it out. I think it has a great deal to do with 'WE REAP WHAT WE SOW'. Funny how simple it is for people to trash God and then wonder why the world's going to hell. Funny how we believe what the newspapers say, but question what the Bible says. Funny how you can send 'jokes' through email and they spread like wildfire, but when you start sending messages regarding the Lord, people think twice about sharing. Funny how lewd, crude, vulgar and obscene articles pass freely through cyberspace, but public discussion of God is suppressed in the school and workplace. Are you laughing yet? Funny how when you forward this message, you will not send it to many on your address list because you're not sure what they believe, or what they will think of you for sending it. Funny how we can be more worried about what other people think of us than what God thinks of us. Pass it on if you think it has merit. If not, then just discard it...no one will know you did. But, if you discard this thought process, don't sit back and complain about what bad shape the world is in. My Best Regards, Honestly and respectfully... Ben Stein.

MEN IN HEAVEN

When everybody on earth was dead and waiting to enter Heaven,

God appeared and said, "I want the men to make two lines.

One line for the men who were true heads of their household, and the other line for the men who were dominated by their women.

I want all the women to report to St. Peter."

Soon, the women were gone to St. Peter, and there were two lines of men.

The line of the men who were dominated by their wives was 100 miles long, and in the line of men who truly were heads of their household, there was only one man.

God said to the long line, "You men should be ashamed of yourselves;

I created you to be the head of your household!

You have been disobedient and have not fulfilled your purpose!

Of all of you, only one obeyed.

Learn from him."

God turned to the one man,

"How did you manage to be the only one in this line?"

The man replied, "My wife told me to stand here."

Mystery Answer is Lamb of God
