Welcome to Divine Mercy Parish ~ We are pleased to have you present today and extend to you the warmest of welcomes. It is fitting that we should celebrate the Holy Mass together at our Parish, the center of our spiritual life. We ask everyone gathered here to remember this is a holy place. It is a place where the Blessed Sacrament, Our Lord present among us, is kept in the tabernacle. It is also a sacred place for prayer. Therefore, please maintain a respectful silence in the Church out of consideration for the presence of Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament, and those who are praying. Thank you for your understanding.

For Reflection:

“We better get used to each others faults,
because we never know who our neighbor will be in heaven.

PRO LIFE REFLECTION

Colossians 3: "Here there is not Greek and Jew...slave, free...but Christ is all in all."

Barbed wire and high walls block our vision from seeing Christ in those risking their lives fleeing conditions we don't understand.

THE CHIEF

The Navy Chief noticed a new seaman and barked at him. "Get over here. What's your name sailor?"

"John" the new seaman replied.

"Look, I don't know what kind of bleeding-heart pansy stuff they're teaching sailors in boot camp these days, but I don't call anyone by his first name," the chief scowled. "It breeds familiarity, and that leads to a breakdown in authority.

I refer to my sailors by their last names only. Smith, Jones, Baker, whatever. And you are to refer to me as "Chief. Do I make myself clear?"

"Aye, Aye Chief !"

"Now that we've got that straight, what's your last name?"

The seaman sighed. "Darling, my name is John Darling, Chief."

"Okay, John, here's what I want you to do...."
